LEAK IN THE YACHT EVA CAUSES LOTS OF TROUBLE FOR OSCAR WHITE AND OTHERS

YACHTSMAN E. O. WHITE.

Oscar White had an experience Sunday which was at once curious and unpleasant. He and several others, including Mrs. White and child, sailed down to Pearl Harbor on Saturday in their yacht, the Eva. They anchored at Pauoa, and on Sunday morning started to sail up the lagoon. The cruise had not proceeded long before those on board felt a slight bump. Mrs. White called the others' attention to it, but only passing notice was taken of the incident, the slight shock having, in the opinion of the Eva's occupants, been caused by striking a coconut or some other floating rubbish. This occurred in the middle of the lagoon.

The Eva, after striking the obstacle, sailed to Aki's landing, a distance of about three miles. Arrived there, the party went ashore and ate lunch, returning to the boat an hour and a half later, when the homeward trip was commenced. When the Eva left the landing there was no sign of water in her, but she had not proceeded more than a quarter of the way to McGrew's when water was discovered. In spite of continued pumping the water rose steadily and the yacht was put about and headed again for Aki's landing.

When nearly at the wharf the water was up to the transoms and Captain White decided to run aground on a sand spit rather than run the risk of foundering in deep water. This was done, and as soon as there was something solid under her, bailing was commenced, and the balers were with difficulty able to hold their own.

At this juncture Captain White sent one of the crew to the Waiwai rice mill for assistance and in response the manager sent five Chinese to the rescue, armed with buckets.

Just then Mr. Johnson of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company happened along in the Dewey, and, seeing the Eva's plight, came over to her. He ripped up the floor and located a hole in her starboard side under the chain plates and a little below the water line. Being experienced in ship carpentry, he soon remedied the trouble with a temporary patch.

Meanwhile the water had receded and the Eva was in a fair way toward being left high and dry, so that, rather than wait for the high tide, Captain White and party returned to Honolulu by train.

Yesterday morning a telephone message was received by Mr. White to the effect that the Eva had been floated and was now safe in deep water.

What floating substance caused the trouble remains a mystery, but the general opinion is that it was a pointed log and that after the collision the aperture remained plugged with rotten wood until after the Eva was on her homeward way, when it gradually worked out and let in the water. If this theory is correct, the reason of the delayed breakage is explained.

Other yachtsmen think that there is a submerged rock where the Eva struck, and back up their opinion with stories of previous incidents of a similarly mysterious nature. Had the leak not been discovered until they were outside on their return trip, it might have easily resulted in the loss of our speediest yacht, and possibly the lives of those on board, as well.

ONLY ENGLISH IN COURT DOCUMENTS

Judge Humphreys Issued Order to That Effect Yesterday.

Judge Humphreys has laid down the rule that all papers in the courts hereafter must be written entirely in the English language and a notice to that effect has been posted in the courtroom at the Judiciary building.

In pursuance of his policy, Judge Humphreys sustained yesterday a demurrer to the complaint in the "Ananua" case of Abigail K. Kallieha vs. Lowell Kapua. The case was for damages for slander, the plaintiff charging that Kapua had accused her of being a witch, or kahuna. The alleged slanderous words were set out in Hawaiian in the complaint, without an English translation. Judge Humphreys ordered that the plaintiff be permitted to amend without costs and the case will be speedily brought to an issue.

MALAKA'S GUARDIAN.

Appointment of P. K. Kuehu is Sustained by the Court.

The petition of Thomas and Hattie Murray for the adoption of Malaka Moolau, the 7-year-old child over whom there has been something of a contest in the courts of late, was dismissed yesterday by Judge Humphreys. The Murrys asked for the custody of the child on the ground that P. K. Kuehu, who was appointed its guardian, was not a proper person to have charge of it. They also said that Kuehewane, who claimed to be the father of the little one, was not its father, while Kealia, a laborer in Honolulu, was.

Judge Humphreys, however, decided that the Murrys were in the wrong, and he gave the child into the care of Kuehu.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSED.

Order of Judge Humphreys in Case of Smith vs. Winchester.

A decision was handed down yesterday by Judge Humphreys in the foreclosure case of Wm. O. Smith et al. vs. W. H. Winchester, ordering a sale of the mortgaged premises for the liquidation of the debt.

In the course of his opinion Judge Humphreys states that he believes $50 is a very reasonable attorney's fee, for he states, "I do not believe in muzzling the ox that treads out the corn, and I should be willing in a case like the present one, involving over $2,400, to allow a much larger fee."

The case was on a promissory note for $2,400, executed eighteen months ago.

Court Notes.

Joseph Frias has been appointed Portuguese Interpreter for the courts. He acted in that capacity yesterday for the first time in the Police Court.

J. M. Monsarrat has been discharged of all responsibility as trustee for Susie F. Cartwright and Ruth and Mary Cartwright. The order was issued by Judge Stanley yesterday, with date as of July 15th, when he ceased connection with the bench of the Circuit Court.

W. O. Smith has been appointed the guardian of Robert D. King, William H. King and Samuel W. King by Judge Humphreys, the older children of the late James A. King, and Mindora L.

Berry has been appointed guardian of the two younger children, John W. King and Helen M. B. King.

The Honolulu Investment Company has brought suit against Minnie Kou Ulauna et al. to quiet title to certain property in the Ill of Kalawahine, Kona, Oahu.

Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family, and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

Resort at Kalihi.

Fred Paul has secured a portion of the Herbert place at Kalihi and will open there a resort for children and women. He intends to construct a playground for children that will delight the little people and he will also have arrangements for boating and fishing. Paul was formerly a cook on the Maican and he promises that he will furnish a table that will not be excelled in the city.

THE WORD

Of a Honolulu Citizen About Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Can this be so? Is it true? These are the questions which every man and woman in Honolulu suffering the torture of kidney disease asks as they read the published accounts in newspapers about medicines which claim to cure it. Whatever the conclusion arrived at, touching the truth of these cures, they can't doubt the following for it took place in Honolulu and the experiences are those of a representative citizen:

Mr. Cyrus S. Edison of Kapiolani Park, this city, says:—"I am at present a teamster and came to the Islands 15 years ago. Previous to that I drove a stage coach in the United States. These occupations, necessitating my being out at all seasons, were no doubt the cause of my kidney disorder. I had the ordinary symptoms of this complaint, and resorted to a host of things to cure it. All of them failed to do so, however, and when I had almost given up hope I heard about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and got some at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They did indeed relieve me and I am quite satisfied with the benefit they have been to me."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box (six boxes for $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Young Men's Christian Association Juniors left town for their summer camp in Mauna Valley yesterday afternoon. Their tents and baggage were conveyed in buses; their owners walked to the scene of rural delight.

It's ideal for home use—2 TRIAL CONVINCES!
